down the Chippewa River towards the Niagara to attempt a rescue at the mouth of the small stream. The rescuers went far beyond what is considered the danger line, but a cross-current carried the unfortunate man away from them toward fout Island, and in a few minutes be was carried over the Horse Shoe Falls. The would be rescuers were by this time in a perilous position, and it was with great difficulty that they succeeded in reaching shore. They were John Rapellie, an employ of the tanadlan Power Company, Detective Greenwood, Louis B. Dudd, in one boat, and George Gray and Thomas Flommerfelt in the second.
